The New Jersey American Association of University Women (AAUW) members from the Crystal Springs area, in partnership with the Crystal Springs (CS) Book Club, are co-hosting an important evening seminar on:

Human Trafficking in New Jersey

Please save the date: Tuesday, April 21, 2015 at 7 PM in the Crystal Springs Clubhouse.

New Jersey is a “hub for human trafficking”. Young girls and boys are subjected to force, fraud, abuse or coercion for the purpose of sexual exploitation. According to data collected by the Polaris Project, one of the nation’s largest anti-trafficking organizations, New Jersey children can be found working, in captive situations, on the streets, in massage parlors, homes, hotel rooms, restaurants, and farms.

The keynote speaker is New Jersey Coalition Against Human Trafficking Member and Past President of the State Board of AAUW-NJ Ginny Lyttle of Morris Plains, NJ.

This event is free and open to the public. Refreshments will be served.
