

JANUARY INTERNS WANTED!

COALITION AGAINST
TRAFFICKING

The New Jersey Coalition Against Human Trafficking's Internship Program is a great way for college undergraduates to make a difference during winter break!

The Coalition is seeking 15 creative college students who can take the initiative and enjoy working on a team project. You will develop and host a live-stream event to raise awareness about how to prevent human trafficking.

The event is scheduled for January 11, 2019, which is Human Trafficking Awareness Day.

- Students must be available from mid-December through January 11, 2019
- All in-person meetings take place in Whippany NJ
- This is a volunteer internship, but NJCAHT will provide lunches, partial travel reimbursement, and future letters of recommendation
- This internship is competitive: last year 105 individuals applied for 15 positions
- To apply, see the application form on www.njhumantrafficking.org/internships
