AGENDA

8:30 Registration and Continental Breakfast

9:00 Morning Program - "Leadership Engages and Empowers"

One of the challenges of working with groups is how to engage individuals so that they will become an effective team and help make the mission of the organization a reality. This workshop will give a brief overview of what can undermine motivation and then mainly focus on tools and techniques that can be used for Board, Staff, Volunteers, or Committees to engage and empower. Facilitated by Marge Smith Nonprofit Consultant and Founder & Chair of Princeton Community Works

11:30 Networking Luncheon Buffet

12:30 Afternoon Program - "Leadership in Action: Get SMART"

This session will focus on using the techniques and skills from the morning session to make an action plan using SMART technique. Working in cooperative groups, participants will clarify a short-term goal and make a plan to achieve it. Facilitated by Jacqueline McGuinness.
