

NJ is Reopening:

Post Pandemic Outlook:

What are the implications for the NJ Working Woman?

Join the American Association of University Women of New Jersey (AAUW NJ) in a collaborative conversation about how the Pandemic has affected NJ working women and to consider their needs as New Jersey reopens.

Moderated by Jacqueline McGuinness, Program VP AAUW NJ

Featured Panelists:

Debra Lancaster

Executive Director
Center of Women & Work, Rutgers University

Rebecca Perrone

Township Council
Willingboro

Keturah Harris, Ed.D

Educator
Burlington County Institute of Technology

Elaine Ingulli, J.D

Program Committee
South Jersey NOW, Alice Paul Chapter

Kimberly Iozzi, Ph.D

Executive Director
Dress for Success Northern NJ

Farheen Choudhary

DEI Consultant, Aristotle Communications
DEI Committee Chair, Princeton Mercer Regional Chamber of Commerce

Date: May 22, 2021

Time: 10:00 AM Eastern Time

REGISTER

After registering, you will receive a confirmation email containing information about joining the meeting.

“When women support women, amazing things can happen.”

-Viola Davis